Actionable steps to get started today

I was broke. Like, really broke. Single mom, two kids who needed school supplies, rent I couldn't pay, utilities I couldn't afford. I'd lie awake at night wondering if I was failing my kids.

Everyone around me said: "Start trading. Get rich quick. That's how people build wealth."

So I tried. Opened an account with $200 I scraped together. Lost it in 2 weeks. Felt like an idiot.

But then something clicked. I realized I couldn't trade because I didn't HAVE money. I was trying to multiply nothing.

So I did something different. I learned to budget. Not boring budgeting — strategic budgeting. I found $300/month I was wasting. Then I built side hustles while working full-time. Freelance writing. Reselling. Online courses. Small things that added up.

After 2 years, I had $5K saved. Real capital. Then I learned to trade. The RIGHT way. Technical analysis. Fundamental research. Not FOMO.

12 years later, I'm financially free. Not rich. Free. There's a difference.

And this ebook is everything I learned in those 12 years — condensed, so you don't have to take 12 years.

Phase 1: Budget Like Your Life Depends On It

Why Budgeting Comes FIRST

Everyone skips this. They jump straight to trading. That's why most people fail.

Budgeting isn't about restriction. It's about visibility. You can't build wealth if you don't know where your money goes.

Your First Step: Track Everything

- ✓ Food / Groceries
- ✓ Transport / Gas
- ✓ Utilities / Rent
- ✓ Phone / Internet
- ✓ Shopping / Entertainment
- ✓ Health / Insurance
- ✓ Everything else

Track for ONE MONTH. That's it. See where your money actually goes.

Find Your Leaks

Most people waste $200–500/month without realizing it:

- Subscriptions you forgot about
- Eating out instead of cooking
- Impulse shopping
- Premium services you don't use

Even $300/month = $3,600/year = Your first investment account.

Why “Side Hustle” Not “Side Gig”

A side gig is temporary. A side hustle compounds. You're building multiple income sources while you work your main job.

Real Examples (That Actually Work)

Freelance Writing / Content

$20–100 per article. Start on Fiverr or Upwork. $500–2,000/month possible

Reselling (Thrift Stores to eBay/Poshmark)

Buy low, sell high. $200 investment = $500–1,000/month

Online Courses / Teaching

Teach what you know. $1,000–5,000/month once it scales

Virtual Assistant Work

Manage schedules, emails, social media. $15–30/hour, flexible

The Real Goal

Build to $2–5K/month extra. That's $24–60K/year on top of your job. Now you have REAL capital to invest.

This took me 2 years. You can do it faster.

Phase 3: Invest With Real Capital

NOW You're Ready to Trade

You have money. You understand budgeting. You built discipline through side hustles. NOW you learn the markets.

The Path

1 Paper Trading (Practice)

Use virtual money to learn technical analysis, candlesticks, support/resistance

2 Small Real Money

Start with $500-1,000. Learn what real fear and greed feels like

3 Scale Slowly

Double down on what works. Pull back on what doesn't. 6-12 months before serious capital

This is where most people get it backwards. They skip phases 1 & 2, jump to phase 3, and blow up their account. Don't be that person.

Mistake 1: Waiting to Be Perfect

You don't need $10K to start budgeting. You don't need perfect knowledge to begin. Start with what you have. Imperfect action beats perfect planning.

Mistake 2: Skipping Phases 1 & 2

"I'll learn to trade first, make money, then budget." No. You'll blow up the account. Do it in order. Phase 1, then 2, then 3.

Mistake 3: Comparing Your Beginning to Someone Else's Middle

You see someone with a 6-figure portfolio. You don't see the 10 years of work behind it. You're on day 1. That's okay.

Mistake 4: FOMO Trading

"Everyone's making money on this stock." That's when you lose. Trade your plan, not the hype. Boring beats exciting.

Mistake 5: Giving Up After One Loss

You lose $100 and think it's not for you. Wrong. Losses teach more than wins. Stay curious. Keep learning. Keep going.

Your First 7 Days: Action Plan

Day 1: Track ONE Day

Write down everything you spend. Coffee, gas, food, everything. See what one day costs.

Day 2: Track FIVE Days

Keep tracking. Look for patterns. What's your daily average?

Day 3: Identify One Leak

Find ONE thing you're overspending on. A subscription, daily coffee, whatever. Cut it.

Day 4: Open a Savings Account

Separate from your checking. Move your first $5–10 into it. See it grow.

Day 5: Download She Blooms Wealth App

Use the Budget Tracker to log your spending. See it visualized. Makes it real.

Day 6: Research ONE Side Hustle

Pick one from this ebook. Read about it. See if it fits your life.
